As the wind blew hard or the wind blew soft, So swift he turned or slow, And just the number of miles an hour His dial-plate would show. But the little anemometer On the weather-bureau tall Decided, very innocent, 'Twas he that did it all. So when the wind blew a hurricane— "I'm a terrible fellow!" he cried; And when the wind was a zephyr mild—

Jesus Walks on the Water - Immediately he made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, but by this time the boat, battered by the waves, was far from the land, for the wind was against them. And early in the morning ...
