'Rabbit At Rest' is the fourth in the 'Rabbit Angstrom' series by John Updike. Naturally, I decided to read this one before all the others, although I don't think it actually made that much difference. In this fourth installment, main character Harry "Rabbit" Angstrom now lives in a condo in Florida, in 1989.

Rabbit at Rest (Rabbit Angstrom #4) by John Updike

Rabbit Is Rich (1981), and Rabbit at Rest (1990)—the latter two winning Pulitzer Prizes—follow the same character during later periods of his life. Rabbit Remembered (2001) returns to characters from those books in the wake of Rabbit's death. The Centaur (1963) and Of the Farm (1965) are notable among Updike's...
